SMOKING BARRED BY BURLINGTON

Order Issued by Holdrege More Extensive Than That of the Union Pacific.

From now on about the only things. The electric light contract was en-

The Burlington is out with a smoke order that is even more far-reaching lights are needed in its vicinity, and than the one recently promulgated by this list will be handed into the city the Union Pacific. The Union Pacific order against smoking applied only to company employes while in the ofbuilding during office hours. The Burlington order is made to apply to all officials as well as employes and prohibits smoking at any time or place in the headquarters building. The order is signed by the general manager. The understanding is that the scope of the Burlington anti-smoke order is to be widened so as to take in agents and others out on the line and that they will be prohibited from smoking in or around company property at all times during work hours.

It is asserted that the anti-smoke order is not for the purpose of de-priving the men of any of their libpriving the men of any of their liberties, but is on account of a demand made by the public. It is said that coming in contact with company employes there are numerous people, both men and women, to whom to-bacco smoke is offensive and that no partiality be shown the order is made general. It is effective at once.

Nebraska to Have Federal Aid for Good Roads Work

James C. Wonders, district engineer of the Fifth district under the new federal road act, is in Omaha at present looking for an office location present looking for an office location from which to administer the affairs of this road-building program.

Mr. Wonders is somewhat surprised at the high rents demanded in office buildings here, although he is somewhat partial to Omaha as the location for the headquarters of the district. Kansas Citv is the other city considered as headquarter.

There are ten federal districts under this act. Nebraska, Iowa, Kansas and Missouri constitute the Fifth district.

and Missouri constitute the Fifth district.

The federal appropriation for the building of roads in this district is $8,500,000. The program contemplates a period of five years. An important condition is attached to the program, which is that the respective states must appropriate for good roads work an amount equal to the amount the federal government gives for the purpose. Thus it is possible that not all of the $8,500,000 will be spent in these states, but such part o' it will be spent as the states are willing to meet dollar for dollar. The Nebraska legislature this winter will have this matter lar for dollar. The Nebraska legisla-ture this winter will have this matter before it, and will have up the problem of how large an appropria-tion to make for roads in order to get as much as possible of this federal money as an auxiliary fund.

A resolution of sympathy with the farmers of Douglas county, who are fighting the proposed tax for the paving of Pacific street from Sixtieth street west, was passed and a committee appointed to go before the next legislature to urge the repeal of the act requiring this tax.

The credentials of three new improvement clubs, recently organized, were accepted and the delegates duly installed.

The legislative committee was instructed to co-operate with other organizations for the passing of a bill in the coming legislature to amend the law creating the Metropolitan Water district and the Water board and place the management of the

Meanest Man Robs Poor Watchman of His Year's Crop

Mr. Lennon has worked as watch man on building operations in Omah for years and is now day watchman at the new First National bank building. Out of his savings he had bought three lots at Forty-third street and Hartman avenue. He planted corn on his lots, hoping to make a little money that way.
